Subj: Appreciation letter following invitation to the opening ceremony of the course on Human Rights in Law Enforcement and Public Safety Institutions course, 22 March 2021

Dear Mr. Velișcu,

On behalf of the Representation in Romania of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), I have the honour to express my appreciation for the invitation to the opening ceremony on the course on Human Rights in Law Enforcement and Public Safety.

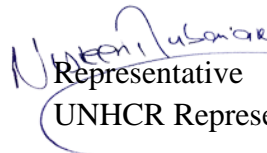

Our mandate at UNHCR is to ensure that persons fleeing from persecution, war and other forms of violence find safe harbour in countries where their human rights are respected and where they can start a new life. We are delighted to see that the Center for the Promotion of Human Rights and Postgraduate Studies that you lead has made such a firm and long-term commitment to human rights.

Law enforcement personnel are at the frontlines in the migration and asylum process. We trust that through the training provided here, an increased number of such professionals will be equipped with the knowledge and skills to award access to the territory, to assess the asylum claim and to assist in the integration process of highly vulnerable individuals who seek shelter from violence and persecution.

UNHCR would like to emphasize its high interest in establishing a strong partnership with the Center for the Promotion of Human Rights and Postgraduate Studies, to the benefit of our persons of concern.

Please accept, dear Mr. Velișcu, the assurances of my highest consideration.
